

Accredited Management Organization®

The AMO® - ACCREDITED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION® accreditation is the only recognition of excellence given to real estate management firms. It is a mark of distinction based on industry standards and best practices that are relevant to real estate management firms, their clients, and the assets they manage. A clear demonstration that your property is in the best possible hands. Legacy is in an elite group of 550 AMO® Firms nationwide to be awarded this professional excellence.

Every AMO® firm is required to have a CPM® member directing and supervising its real estate management. Legacy, LLC's Chief Communications Officer, Katherine Sinicropi has this prestigious designation. The code of ethics, education and experience she receives ensures the highest standards are met.

Many investors choose to place their interest with AMO® Firms because these firms subscribe to a Code of Professional Ethics that governs their business practices. Every AMO® is obligated to abide by the AMO® Code of Professional Ethics which is strictly enforced by IREM.

